

ALMA International Exhibits at InfoComm & Announces AISE Convention Dates

May 24, 2017, Maricopa, Arizona: The Association of Loudspeaker Manufacturing and Acoustics (ALMA) is pleased to be exhibiting at InfoComm at Booth #5483 in the audio section. ALMA, in association with InfoComm will also host a reception on June 15 at 4PM in room W104B. All are welcome to this relaxed and low key reception. This is the perfect way to “wind down” after a busy day at the show.

ALMA is also sponsoring 2 seminars at InfoComm.

"Improved sound system design and system commissioning through better measurements" presented by John Clough- PCB Piezotronics. Thursday, June 15 at 8:30AM IS115.

"The Science Behind the Sound: How to Select Loudspeakers and Headphones for Broadcast and Production" Presented by Dr. Sean Olive- Harman Professional Solutions. Thursday, June 15 at 1PM IS116.

ALMA has announced the dates and location, and theme for their annual convention, AISE. The theme; “The Revolution Of The Audio Signal Path” is not only our theme for 2018, but also an ongoing focus for the association as integration becomes the priority in successful product design. More information is available at ALMA’s website; www.almainternational.org.

ALMA International Symposium & Expo

The Revolution Of The Audio Signal Chain

The signal path from source to speaker has always depended upon a variety of discrete components. In today's world of audio playback, those components have converged and the loudspeaker is no longer the sole determinant of quality audio. The theme for AISE 2018: "The Revolution of the Audio Signal Chain" will focus upon this convergence and how this revolution will impact transducer design and integrated loudspeaker performance.

Exhibitor registration opens on June 1, 2017.
Attendee registration opens on July 1, 2017.

Be a part of the biggest AISE yet at a great new venue with many expanded amenities, but NO increase in price! Free shuttle service to and from McCarran Las Vegas International Airport to our beautiful new venue at South Point.
